FLYNN HELPLESS BEFORE JOHNSON

Police End Bloody Fray in the Ninth-Wolgast, in Spite of Foul, Given Decision in Thirteenth Round-Holiday Baseball Games.

Ringside, Las Vegas, July 4—Jim Flynn's white hope expired today in the ninth round of his scheduled 45-round bout with Champion Jack Johnson. Flynn's face was enopped and cut rightfully by Johnson's deliberate blows and in the ninth round Captain Cowies of the New Mexican state blows and in the ninth round Captain Cowies of the New Mexican state pulce pushed his way to the ring and declared the contest ended, as a brutal exhibition. For three rounds Flynn had realized his inability to defend himself and frantically tried to but his way to victory. At times he leaped a foot from the ground, endeavoring to crash his skull against the champion's jaw. Time and again Referee Smith warned him to stop, and Flynn made no defense.

When the police interfered, keferee Smith, through the announcer, owarded Johnson the fight. Johnson made no serious effort to hurt Flynn during the nine rounds. Apparently be had him safe in check even when Flynn's butting tactics were at their worst. Johnson bore not a single mark of the fight beyond a slight cut inside his lower lin. is lower lip

The Fight by Rounds. Round 1—"Will you shake hands, Jack?" queried Flynn, as he opened the battle by rushing into a clinch. "No," battle by rushing into a clinch. "No," retorted the black. Flynn moved in close, but Johnson eastly avoided his attempts and flung a stiff left to the Round 2-As Flynn rushed, Johnson imply grasped bim about the shoul-ers and held him at bay, all the while grinning like an ape. The champion pecked at the fireman's face with light lefts, and as they clinched uppercut twice heavily with rights to the jaw. The champion toyed with Flynn, twice nore shooting right uppercuts to the iw, one of which sent the fireman's end bobbing.

The champion pushed his man across The champion pushed his man across the ring and hooked his left to the sat, and a moment later flung a hard short arm joil to the jaw. Johnson smiled constantly and fought with great care. Flynn backed the negro against the ropes, and the champion rewarded him with a right that cut a deep gash under his left eye.

Johnson bled slightly from mouth as he emerged from the mix-up, but Flynn spat blood in a stream as the champion cut his mouth with a volley of rights and lefts.

Johnson Seems Holding Back. Round 4-Flynn rushed in close and was met with the customary rain of right and left uppercuts to the face. At that it seemed as if Johnson was holding himself in check. He shook Flynn with a few stomach jabs, scarcely trying to protect his body from Flynn's attacks. Johnson constantly showed him stomach and the stantly showed him stomach and the stantly shoved him stomach and in-vited him to blaze away, which con-vulsed the speciators. Flynn elicited a great cheer when he rushed Johnson to the ropes and planted a solid left to the faw. The round ended with lynn's face covered with blood. Round 5-Johnson turned his head to white antagonist. Flynn banged away at the stomach, but this time Johnson covered up and shot four lefts to the face in quick succession, varying it with a left uppercut to the jaw. Flynn at close range, sent half a dezen punches on the stomach, but Johnson only smiled and again made no apparent attempt to protect his mid-section. Johnson aroused the crowd to merriment by releasing Flynn's hold and clapping his own gloves together like a happy schoolgirl. "I can't fight white he's holding me," shouled Flynn, protesting to the referee. The round ended then with Johnson doing a running conversation with his wife and seconds.

Flynn tried to find a loophole to stem the beating given him. Johnson dazed the fireman with his speed, landing left and right to the jaw. 'He's holding me,' was Flynn's cry. Johnson, maddened, landed a volley of straight left and right punches to the face, bewildering Flynn, then he stapped himself, apparently with a view to prolonging the contest. Flynn's seconds also warned him to cease butting, when he sat down.

Round i—Johnson landed fully a dozen rapid-fire rights and lefts to the fireman's face, and at the same time placed himself in a position to withstand Flynn's butting tactics. "Wait a minute" cried Johnson to a spectator who had shouted for him to end it. Flynn bled profusely from the nose as Johnson beat a tattoo with left and right to that organ. Flynn failed to land a glove on the champion, the black's defense proving impregnable, Johnson made the blood fairly spurt as he rained blow after blow on his bewildered opponent. There was not a drop of blood on Johnson as he took his seat.
